
Resources for education providers: Meeting the revised SETs

Professional responsibility for the programme

Changing focus of the standard

Previous standard
(SET 3.4)

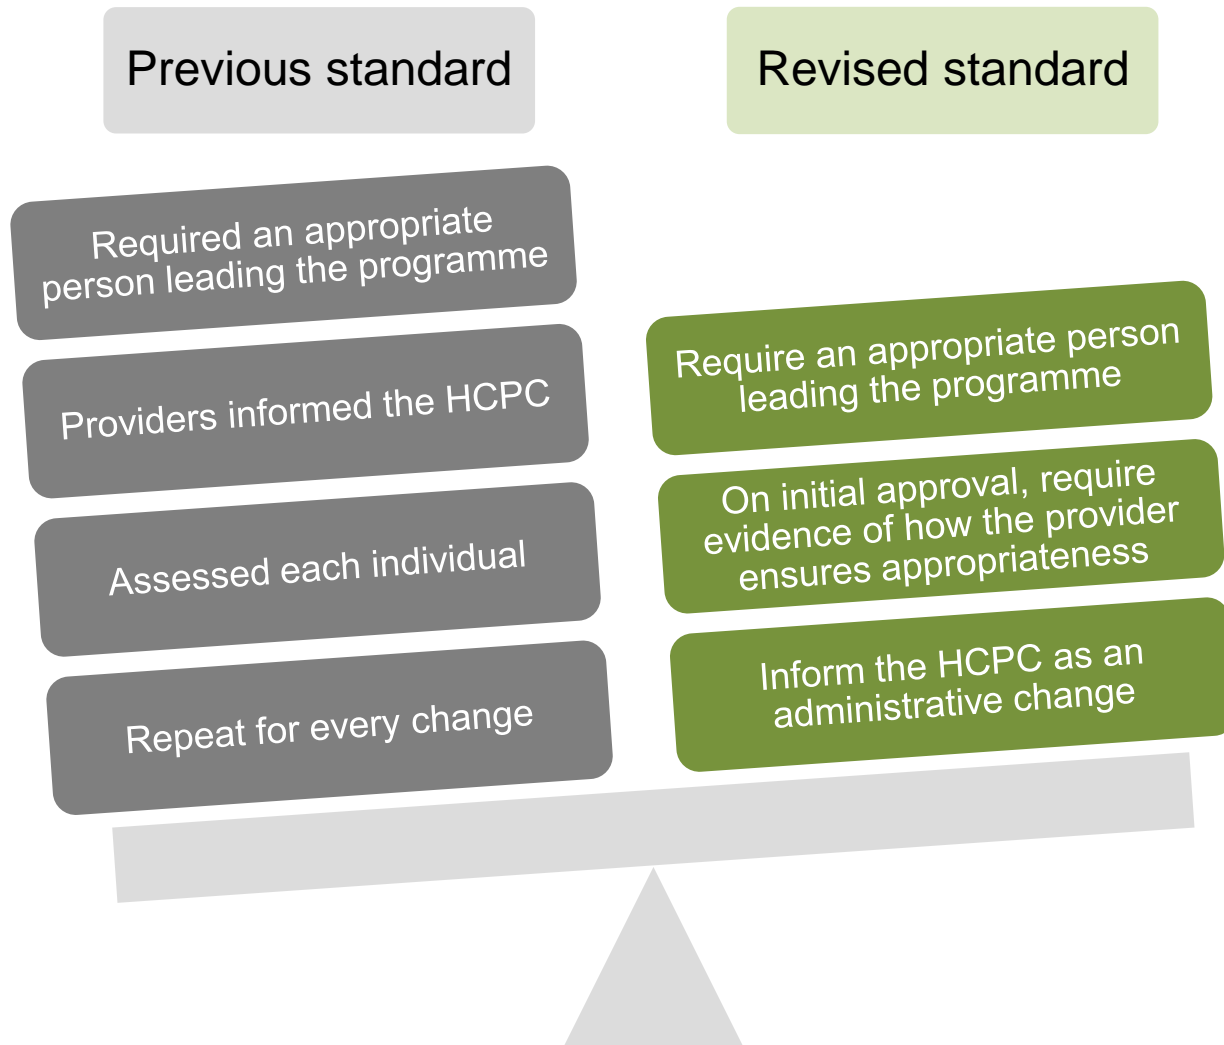

- Who the person with overall responsibility for the programme was, so we could make a judgement about their suitability.

Revised standard (SET
3.3)

- How you ensure the person in this role is suitable, on an ongoing basis

Reducing the burden in assessing this standard

Evidence you could provide

Old standard

The typical evidence provided was the person's CV and registration number with HCPC (or other regulator).

Revised standard

Role profile;
person specification;
recruitment process;
expression of interest process;
or any other information which demonstrates how you ensure the individual is appropriate.

You will not meet this standard if you provide a CV – as this does not address the purpose of the standard.

Useful questions to ask yourself when providing evidence for this standard

In answering these questions, you should be able to show us how you ensure a suitable person is in place now, and will be in place in the future

What do you consider to be appropriate qualifications required to perform the role?

What do you consider to be appropriate experience required to perform the role?

How do you ensure the person in the role, and those that will fulfil the role in the future, has the required qualifications and experience?

Does this person need to be registered with the HCPC? If not, why not?

How would you recruit to this role in the future?

Implementation timeframe

