

Executive Summary and Recommendations – Opinion Leader Research

Introduction

A group of panel members were convened on the 20th August to discuss the evaluation of the HPC fitness to practice hearings process. The finding from the session is attached. OLR undertook an evaluation of the fitness to practise processes at the start of the year and presented the findings of this process at the Partner Conference. The information gathered from this and from the panel discussion will be used as an aid to assist in the further refinement of the fitness to practise processes.
