

Health Professions Council – 1 October 2008

Executive summary and recommendations

Introduction

The Appointments Commission has taken a policy decision that it will not advertise for the restructured Council until the consultation on the Section 60 Order starts. The timetable for the recruitment of the restructured Council will be finalised once the timetable for the legislation has been agreed. Further information will be made circulated to Council at that time.

Decision

The Council is requested to note the document. No decision is required.
