1	Protection of title: Group agreed that the title 'counsellor' should be protected if possible, as it was widely used by practitioners and widely understood by the public. The Group felt that, if it was not possible to protect the title 'counsellor', 'registered counsellor' might be protected instead, but this should be the subject of further discussion. The Group agreed that the title 'psychotherapist' should also be protected. The Group agreed that the Executive should investigate whether it would be legally possible to protect those titles and report back to a future meeting. (5.26)	MG	April 2009
